Prayer Points

-Continue to keep Mike Bergey in your prayers as he recovers at Good Shepherd Hospital from the effects of a stroke. Pray for God’s healing touch to be swift and complete. Specifically, pray that his pneumonia would clear up and that he would be able to be taken off the ventilator.

-Please keep Lee & Regine Greaser and the entire Greaser family in your prayers as Lee’s sister was laid to rest on Tuesday. Pray for God’s touch of comfort and peace during this time of mourning.

-Pray for our upcoming communion service on June 7. Pray that this would be a time of intentional personal confession as well as a time of corporate celebration and unity.

-Continue to pray for our week of Vacation Bible School coming up the end of June. Pray for clear planning and direction for the committee. Pray also that the entire congregation will have a passion to love and serve the children that will be here.

-Pray for Bob Frederick as he spends a week in Haiti doing some electrical work for the mission at La Baleine. Pray for traveling safety as well as many opportunities to connect with the Haitian people.

-Please keep in your prayers those who are dealing with ongoing medical concerns. Pray especially for Florence Knechel, Russ Detweiler, and Ernie Kolb.

Are you interested in a missions trip to Haiti?

There will be a group going to Haiti January 9-16th, 2010.

This group will visit with Water for Life as well as the La Baleine Mission. Cost is approximately $750 for everything. Spots are filling up quickly so if you have interest, please call the church office as soon as possible.
