Prayer Points

-Continue to keep those persons in your prayers who need God’s touch of physical healing. Specifically, pray for Florence Knechel, Charles Martin, Russ Detweiler, and Mike Bergey.

-Please keep in your prayers the two couples who were recently married here at Towamencin. Continue to pray that God will draw Kyle and Alyssa Rank as well as Michael and Rachael Charles closer together and that their love for each other and for God will grow abundantly.

-Praise God for his mercy and grace as we continue to grow closer to completing our building project. Pray for renewed energy to finish the final physical details of the building. Also, give thanks to God for the joy of anticipation that comes by reaching our financial goal of the project--just $19,000 remaining to complete it!

-Pray for Neal Frederick as he prepares to reflect on and answer questions regarding his thoughts on missions based on his experiences this past year. Pray that God will grant him clarity of thought and words that would help us embrace God’s love and compassion for people in our communities and our world.

-Pray for those among us who are experiencing the pain of broken relationships. Pray for God’s touch of healing and restoration to be upon them and especially that a spirit of forgiveness and understanding would be present as persons dialogue about their differences.

-Continue to pray for our government and our country. Pray for a clear vision on foreign policy, economic issues, and on health care. Pray especially that God would guide and direct our leaders and that we would trust in God first and foremost to take care of our needs.
